

Appointment of Chair for the Mid Wales Regional Skills Partnership

It is an exciting time for Learning and Skills in Mid Wales. The Regional Skills Partnership works with business leaders and stakeholders across the region to understand the skills provision and labour market needs in order to drive investment that meets the requirements of both employers and workforce.

The RSP Annual Meeting is to be held on Monday 12 September where a new Chair will be announced.

We are looking to appoint a suitably qualified and inspirational person from the private sector to Chair the group. This chair will be a business person (private company) with business interests in Mid Wales who has a cross county and sub-regional interest and influence. It is expected that the business interests of the Chair will be that of a significant local employer which has an impact on and use of local, regional and national supply chain.

The Chair of the Mid Wales Learning and Skills Partnership will play a key role in helping to drive the region's vision for learning and skills, representing the voice of the private sector in the region to influence and support regional decision-making and to champion the region at a National level.

The purpose of the Learning and Skills partnership is to:

- Improve the collection and sharing of regional employment and skills data, and intelligence.
- Identify the needs of businesses and the current and future workforce in the region.
- Publish an Employment and Skills Plan and other sector specific reports when required.
- Ensure that the learning and skills infrastructure meets the economic and social needs of Mid Wales.

This will require an individual that can demonstrate:

- They are an Industry Leader, particularly from the sectors identified in the Vision.
- Knowledge and experience of the different industry sectors in Mid Wales;
- Strong private sector experience;
- Strong leadership and partnership ethos;
- An understanding of the wider strategic environment and take account of this when making recommendations;

- The ability to convey complex messages to a variety of audiences including Welsh Government;
- Experience of chairing a diverse partnership and high-level meetings involving a range of external partners;
- Have an interest and commitment to the interests of the region.

The post is a voluntary position with an approximate commitment of 12 days a year.
